Director's Notes:

Violet, the show and the character, invite us to examine our faith. Our faith in others, in something bigger, and in ourselves. Civil rights, Vietnam, women's roles – the world is changing and these characters are changing with it. But for Violet, the scar that she carries is heavier than all of it.

Today as we navigate new conversations around these same issues from the 1960s, I have been thinking about the scars that we carry – seen and unseen – and how each of us are driven by those internal and external histories. Who of us can't relate to feeling not quite enough, unable to forgive, or unable to move past a moment that shaped every other moment that followed?

I am grateful to Violet. Her bravery, her joy, her fire and her belief! And for her new friends that are willing to ask hard questions. This Violet is reminding me that we can face fears, we can have wild faith and that healing may not look exactly as we imagined or hoped, but if we are willing to get on the bus ride – it can be exactly what we need.

– Kelli Foster Warder

On Belonging

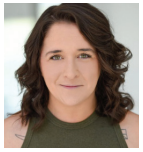

Ten Thousand Things believes that theatre is better when everyone is in the audience. The Ten Thousand Things model is rooted in telling bold, universal stories that honor a diversity of identities. Your presence drives us to evolve creatively and cultivate equitable practices. This inclusive approach breaks down historic and current barriers by igniting the power of empathy. With intention, rigor, and joy, Ten Thousand Things commits to holding space for you.

Land Acknowledgement

Ten Thousand Things Theater, based in the Twin Cities of Minnesota, is located on the traditional land of the Dakota People; and we honor the Anishinaabe People of this land as well. We are guided by the original stewards of this land.

As we continue to educate ourselves at TTT, we invite you to investigate who the original peoples are from where you are located, participate in local and national grassroots-led campaigns, and celebrate the vibrancy of Indigenous people today. This land acknowledgement is not a static, historic statement. The land is to be protected, honored, and cared for today and for future generations.

Why do theater?

KATE BEAHEN She/Her | Old Lady, Others

"We escape to connect. Journeying through others' stories allows us to grow, ache, love and learn something we can bring home with us. Something to make us better for ourselves and those around us. Every facet of art opens our minds and inevitably keeps us all alive longer--If I could, I would pursue it all, but it just so happens I'm a better actress than a painter." THEATRE: Theater Latte Da: Into the Woods, Gypsy, Bernarda Alba; Frank Theatre: The Cradle Will Rock, Fetal, Good Person of Setzuan; Daleko Arts: Always ... Patsy Cline, Urinetown; Lyric Arts: Proof, Picnic, RENT!; Ordway Center for The Performing Arts: The Sound of Music; NPR's A Prairie Home Companion (Returning Guest) TRAINING: B.M. Florida Sate University Music Theatre Program. meetkatebeahen.com

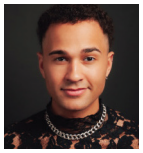

CHARLIE CLARK He/Him | Violet's Father, Others

"Not only does theater have the capacity to teach, inspire and entertain, it brings people from all backgrounds together, reminding us of the magic in the present moment and our shared divine heritage—that we are one." This is Charlie's TTT premiere. He has performed locally at Old Log Theatre, Artistry, Theatre Latté Da, and the Guthrie. Regionally, Charlie has been seen at the Asolo Repertory Theatre, Indiana Repertory Theatre, Phoenix Theatre Indy, Porchlight Music Theatre Chicago, Apple Tree Theatre, Ensemble Theatre Cincinnati, Cincinnati Shakespeare Company, The Human Race Theatre, and Tent Theatre, among others. Favorite shows include 12 Angry Men the musical, Fun Home, Next to Normal, Catch Me if You Can, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, Guys and Dolls, Merrily We Roll Along, Sunday in the Park with George, and Rapture, Blister, Burn, among others.

LYNNEA DOUBLETTE She/Her | Gospel Lady, Others

"I do theater because I love community and family and I love the moment when I feel the family connections that can organically occur within a cast. I do theater to experience a unique and blessed connection with the audience." Lynnea was delighted to make her debut in Ten Thousand Things Theater: Helen by Euripides. Theatre: Geva Theatre: The Color Purple; Theater Latté Da: The Color Purple; Chanhassen Dinner Company: Beautiful, Footloose; Old Globe Theatre in Balboa Park: The Lorax; Children's Theatre: Three Little Birds; Guthrie Theater: Caroline or Change; Stages Theatre: Beauty and the Beast Jr.; Illusion Theater: Autistic License; Zephyr Theater: Mamma Mia; Theatre in the Round: Lysistrata; Theater Latté Da: Violet. Film: Turnipseed, Autistic License, and His Neighbor Phil. Education: Master of Science (M.Sc.), Healthcare Communications, Saint Thomas University. "Lord this moment is AMAZING! Thank you and thank you for my family!" 1 Samuel 3:9-10

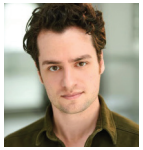

MITCHELL DOUGLAS They/Them | Flick, Solider, Others

"I do theater because it's a thrilling way to explore stories that can be either personal to you or beyond your experience that allow us to grow as an individual/artist. It also brings a beautiful sense of community- whether that's building a show with peers or going to support the plethora of incredible productions throughout the Twin Cities." Mitchell is thrilled to making their TTT debut in Violet. Recent credits include: Production Cast Singer with Norwegian Cruise Lines; Lola in Kinky Boots with Duluth Playhouse and Lyric Arts; Angel in RENT at Artistry; Drifter/Nick in Beautiful, Kevin in The Prom, Bickle in Footloose and Ensemble for The Music Man all with Chanhassen Dinner Theatre; Sky in Mama Mia at Zephr Theatre; Playlist Dancer for Carnival Cruise Lines. "Life isn't about finding yourself. Life is about creating yourself."- George Bernard Shaw

ANNIKA ISBELL She/ Her | Violet

"Theatre allows me to fulfill my ultimate task of creating safety and joy for others. Theatre carries the unique power of inviting people to explore and examine their own lives by escaping into the lives of others. There is nothing else like making space for a community to gather to think and feel and be inspired." Annika is a Minneapolis-based performer and educator who could not be more thrilled to make her Ten Thousand Things' debut in Violet. Favorite credits include Crazy For You (Polly Baker), A Chorus Line (Maggie), Sweet Charity (Charity u/s), and The Pajama Game (Poopsie). She is forever grateful to her family for the support and love that make all of this possible. For Grammy and Grampy, who taught her everything she knows.

RYAN LONDON LEVIN He/Him | Monty, Solider, Others

"Theater is a celebration of human creation and connection. It's real. It's alive. It's beautiful and imperfect. A computer could never recreate it." Ryan is thrilled to be making his Ten Thousand Things Debut! He has worked at many of the local stages including Chanhassen Dinner Theater, Children's Theatre Company, Six Points Theater, Theater Latte Da, Jungle, History Theater, Yellow Tree, Park Square, Artistry, Trademark, SideKick Theater, Illusion and many others. FILM/TV work: I Was There (History Channel)

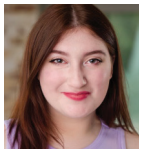

TOM REED He/Him | Preacher, Others

"Live performance creates a space for connection, joy and reflection — even when the world around us is trying to steal all three. Theater is magical and powerful and an essential force for good, maybe especially when it's happening in a space that's not a theater. Thanks for being here." Tom's past credits include: The Spitfire Grill (TTT); Little Shop of Horrors (Guthrie Theater); Scotland, PA, Stones in His Pockets (Theater Latte Da); Scrooge in Rouge, Loch Mess!, Hairball!, Log Jam! (Open Eye Theater); 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee (Artistry); Georgiana & Kitty: Christmas at Pemberley (Jungle Theater); Interstate, Autonomy, Hooded; or Being Black for Dummies, Gloria, Curious Incident, Next to Normal, Avenue Q (Mixed Blood Theater); Christmas of Swing (History Theatre); 18 mainstage sketch comedy productions at Brave New Workshop; and much improv at HUGE Improv Theater. TV/FILM: Lady Dynamite (Netflix), America Unearthed (History Channel) tombreed.com

SOPHINA SAGGAU She/Her | Young Violet, Others

"Theater, at its core, is storytelling. Stories transport us to different worlds; some that we may recognize as similar to our own, and some that may be unfamiliar or new. Whether a story reflects our own experiences, or experiences we've never even considered, it can remind us of our shared humanity. That's a pretty beautiful thing to be reminded of." Sophina is an alumni of the UMN/Guthrie Theater BFA Actor Training Program. She has worked locally with the Guthrie Theater, Children's Theatre Company, Yellow Tree Theatre, Park Square Theatre and Walking Shadow Theatre Company. Her favorite recent performances include The History Plays and Emilia.

MADISON NEAL She/Her | Understudy

"I believe theatre invokes one of the most important qualities we as people can have, empathy. Ever since I was little, I've enjoyed being able to step into other people's shoes and get a glimpse at their life, emotions and experiences. Theatre allows us to understand each other better and tell the stories of those that may not be told otherwise." Madison is thrilled to be making her debut with Ten Thousand Things in Violet! After moving to Seattle to pursue her BFA in musical theatre at Cornish College of the Arts, where she was able to explore roles such as Paula in Fefu and Her Friends, and Pamela in Head Over Heels, she is excited to be back in her hometown telling this beautiful story. Other credits include The Children's Theatre Company, Youth Performance Initiative, and Fidgety Fairytales.

GABE WOODARD He/Him | Understudy

"I do theater to give people the chance to feel things they either have never felt or forgot how to feel. It also gives the opportunity to represent and portray experiences that are rarely shown or talked about, especially in the world we live in today." Gabe was born in St. Louis, Missouri but has been all around the Midwest since. He graduated from TCU with a musical theatre degree in 2022. He most recently had lived in Minneapolis until moving to New York in late 2023. He is overjoyed to return to Minnesota and work with this team on a show that he loves.

SARAH BAHR She/Her | Sets/Props

"Theater combines my passion for collaboration, research, and creative problem solving. Transforming actors into characters and theater spaces into worlds that tell engaging, challenging, and fulfilling stories fuels my artistic process while creating an opportunity to strengthen our community." Sarah previously designed costumes for TTT's This Girl…, Emilia, Iphigenia at Aulis, Thunder Knocking on the Door and The Sins of Sor Juana. She is a costume and scenic designer for theater, opera, and dance and has worked with companies including the Minnesota Opera, Guthrie Theater, Jungle Theater, History Theatre, Trademark Theater, and BRKFST Dance Company. She is a committed advocate for supporting designers and technicians, along with creating meaningful mentorship opportunities for emerging theater artists. She is a member of the Scenic Artist Union Local 829. Website: sarahbahr.com, Instagram: @sarahbahrdesign

BRIAN CRAWLEY Lyrics and Book

Brian Crawley is a playwright and screenwriter. He wrote the book and lyrics for A LITTLE PRINCESS (composer Andrew Lippa) which debuted at Theatreworks of Palo Alto in the summer of 2004. He also wrote the book and lyrics for VIOLET (composer Jeanine Tesori) which was mounted Off-Broadway by Playwrights Horizons in 1997, then remounted in a concert version in 2003 to help inaugurate their new theater. Other musicals he has written include EVANGELINE with Ted Dykstra, and DOWN THERE with composer Lewis Flinn. He appears in the documentary ONE NIGHT STAND, in which he writes a short musical in 24 hours with composer Gabriel Kahane. For the libretto of VIOLET, Brian won the Kleban Award. Prior to the Playwrights Horizons production, and on its behalf, VIOLET was given the Richard Rodgers Musical Production Award and an AT&T OnStage Award. Afterwards, besides a Lucille Lortel Award for Outstanding Musical, VIOLET received the New York Drama Critics Circle Award for Best Musical over all the year's Broadway offerings (as did Paula Vogel's play HOW I LEARNED TO DRIVE; the first time two off-Broadway pieces took these top awards in the Drama Critic Circle's history). Brian's plays have been developed or staged at Lincoln Center, New York Theater Workshop, the National Alliance of Musical Theatre, and the Eugene O'Neill summer theater conference. He majored in Theater Studies at Yale and has an MFA in Acting from the American Conservatory Theater in San Francisco. Brian is a member of the Dramatists Guild.

KELLI FOSTER WARDER She/Her | Director

"The arts is essential to our human existence. It seems as long as we have lived, we have danced, painted, shared stories. We connect, we challenge, we support and we grow through the art! So why now - more than ever we need to be reminded that we are connected, we are dependent, we are wonderfully made!" Kelli currently serves as the Executive Artistic Director at Artistry, a theater and visual arts non-profit in Minnesota. Kelli has served as an arts administrator for over 30 years. Her work as a director and choreographer has been seen on stages across the Twin Cities and the country including Theater Latté Da, The Ordway, Children's Theater Company, Signature Theater and The 5th Avenue Theater. What a dream to be with 10,000 at this time.

SAMANTHA FROMM HADDOW She/Her | Costumes

"Theatre allows me to be completely immersed in another's story and experience their journey through a lens different from my own. As a costume designer, I love exploring how the clothing a character wears can shape how the audience perceives them. Clothes tell a story all their own." Samantha is costume designer, milliner, and textile artist whose work has been seen on various stages throughout the Twin Cities. Previous costume designs include The Spitfire Grill (TTT), Skeleton Crew and Raisin in the Sun (Guthrie Theater), Putnam County Spelling Bee (Artistry), Dial M for Murder, Toil and Trouble, Misery, and In the Next Room (Yellow Tree Theatre), Korean Drama Addict's Guide, TOT, and You for Me for You (Theater Mu), Into the Woods (Theater Latté Da), Don Giovanni and The Tragedy of Carmen (Skylark Opera), The Gondoliers and Odyssey (MN Opera's Project Opera), and multiple productions with Stages Theatre Company and Lyric Arts of Anoka.

SANFORD MOORE He/Him | Music Director

"As a kid from a large family, theater allowed me to vie for more attention than my siblings. As an adult, I recognized that theater can move the hearts and minds of an audience. As a Musical Director, the goal is to move not only the audience, but to challenge and inspire the performer to be a better artist." Sanford has provided music direction for numerous shows at Penumbra Theatre, The Ordway, Children's Theatre, The Guthrie, Theater Latté Da. He is founder/arranger for the vocal jazz ensemble Moore by Four and Minister of Music at Kingdom Life Church.

JEANINE TESORI Composer

Jeanine Tesori won the Tony Award for Best Original Score with Lisa Kron for the musical Fun Home. She has also written Tony-nominated scores for Twelfth Night at Lincoln Center; Thoroughly Modern Millie (lyrics, Dick Scanlan); Caroline, or Change (lyrics, Tony Kushner); and Shrek The Musical (lyrics, David Lindsay-Abaire). The production of Caroline, or Change at the National Theatre in London received the Olivier Award for Best New Musical. Her 1997 Off-Broadway musical Violet (lyrics, Brian Crawley) opened on Broadway in 2014 and garnered four Tony nominations, including Best Musical Revival. Opera: A Blizzard on Marblehead Neck (libretto, Tony Kushner; Glimmerglass) and The Lion, The Unicorn, and Me (libretto, J. D. McClatchy, Kennedy Center). Music for plays: Mother Courage (dir. George C. Wolfe, with Meryl Streep and Kevin Kline), John Guare›s A Free Man of Color (Lincoln Center Theater, dir. George C. Wolfe), and Romeo and Juliet (Delacorte Gala). Film scores: Nights in Rodanthe, Every Day, and You're Not You. Ms. Tesori is a member of the Dramatists Guild and was cited by the ASCAP as the first female composer to have two new musicals running concurrently on Broadway. She was the founding artistic director of Encores! Off-Center at New York City Center, and a lecturer at Yale University. Most of all, she is the proud parent of Siena Rafter.

AJAH WILLIAMS She/Her | Stage Manager

"I do theater because it creates, maintains, and brings communities together. I love supporting the artistic process, and the stories told through this art form are impactful. The collaborative nature of theater results in constant creativity, and being able to witness and be a part of it is exhilarating." Ajah is a freelance Stage Manager & Assistant Stage Manager. She has worked at various Twin Cities theatre houses such as: Theater Latte Da, Artistry, Lyric Arts, Stages Theatre Company, Theater Mu and Yellow Tree Theatre. Ajah is very excited to be a part of her second TTT project after her debut as an Assistant Stage Manager on TTT's production of Iphigenia at Aulis.

CAITLIN LOWANS They/She | Artistic Director

"I love theatre because it is the chance to create the world I want to live in, one room at a time." Caitlin is grateful to join Ten Thousand Things and the Minnesota arts communities. Previously, Caitlin served for six-and-a-half years as Artistic Director of Theatreworks Colorado Springs, directing twelve productions and creating a TTT-inspired community theatre touring program, Free-For-All/ ACT OUT. Recent directing projects at Theatreworks including Kate Hamill's Sense and Sensibility, ACT OUT: 2 Gents, and Into the Woods in Concert (in collaboration with the Chamber Orchestra of the Springs). Prior to that, Caitlin pursued an MFA in directing at Northwestern University, and before that, Caitlin served as Associate Artistic Director and Director of Education at Stoneham Theatre (now Greater Boston Stage Company) north of Boston.

ANNA M. SCHLOERB She/They | Interim Production Manager

"I believe theater-making can be a catalyst — to question the ingrained "truths" society has led us to believe. It is a gift to be a part of an art form that touches our humanness, that embodies truthful, authentic, experiences of life. In theater we are given space to play, to imagine, and to be curious in our vulnerability, and it is in this that we find connection back to our humanity that leads a path for a new way forward." Anna is so honored and excited to back at TTT! Most recently Anna assistant directed Milo Imagines the World at the Children's Theatre Company. She is currently understudying/apprentice for The Moving Company's production of At Low Tide. Other local credits include: Nautilus Music Theater and Open Eye Figure Theatre. Anna holds a BA in American Studies and in Theater & Dance from Macalester College.

ACTORS' EQUITY ASSOCIATION (Equity) – In 1913, is the U.S. labor union that represents more than 51,000 professional Actors and Stage Managers. Equity fosters the art of live theatre as an essential component of society and advances the careers of its members by negotiating wages, improving working conditions and providing a wide range of benefits, including health and pension plans. Actors' Equity is a member of the AFL-CIO and is affiliated with FIA, an international organization of performing arts unions. #EquityWorks
